Hi Jeff,

I did attach the the wrong file. We have two emergencies going at one time and lots of docs floating around. Will send you the correct one this morning. Sorry for confusion.

Barbara, you did not attach the corrected WAF with the new site ID #. I will not process the first one you sent, but I will need you to resend the corrected WAF before I can process it.

Please use the attached revised WAF. The SSID was just created and would like costs to be recorded under that ID.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
